At the awards ceremony on October 15th, 2024, as well

The award is given to employees who have been with the company for at least 10 years, and is given every 5 years. The longest service of this year's awardees is 30 years. The event brought together a diverse range of people, including a couple who had both been working for the company for 20 years and a driver who had received an award for his work.

The breakdown of the awardees is as follows: 42 employees with 10 years of service, 23 employees with 15 years of service, 26 employees with 20 years of service, 6 employees with 25 years of service, and 1 employee with 30 years of service. Of these, 16 are female, and many female employees have been working for a long time and supporting the company.

Then, the president, Keiichiro Ozono, handed out certificates and catalogues to each person, and the board members went around to the tables of the award winners enjoying dinner together, and expressed their gratitude and words of encouragement.

In addition, although they were not eligible for this award, there are also employees in the same group who have been working for the company for over 40 years and are still active.

Futhermore, Minaminihon Total Logistics Service will celebrate its 50th anniversary next year in 2025, and while developing its business, it is also working to create a better working environment for its employees.
