On the day of the ceremony, we welcomed 14 new employees from our company and 12 new employees from Showa Reito Co., Ltd. (Headquarters: Shizuoka City, Shizuoka Prefecture; CEO: Hiroshi Okada; hereinafter referred to as Showa Reito), totaling 26 new employees, and held the entrance ceremony.

At the beginning of the ceremony, our CEO, Keiichiro Ozono, provided an overview of the Minaminihon Group. He also addressed the new employees who were taking their first step as professionals, encouraging them with the following words: “Start with what you can do, and approach each task one step at a time without rushing. For things you don’ t understand or cannot do, seek help from those around you, and gradually increase what you can do. And use this to foster your own growth.”

Next, Hiroshi Okada, CEO of Showa Reito, introduced the company’ s operations and locations. He also offered words of encouragement, saying, “To communicate smoothly, it is important to respect others. By doing so, you create an environment where you can seek advice when you are troubled or unsure. This will lead to the next step forward. Keep up the good work.”
